Working with great organisations

We're very fortunate to work with a wide range of great organisations.

Our recent work.

Fitted For Work

Since 2005, Fitted for Work has transformed the lives of more than 20,000 women. As a not-for-profit organisation and the first of its kind in Australia, it's mission is to assist women experiencing disadvantage to get work and keep it. Our role was to refresh the brand identity and assist the organisation in communicating it's mission to target audiences and key stakeholders.

Assessment of Wind Farm Effects on Birds & Bats

By Charles Meredith, Biosis

Flora & Fauna Assessment

- Wind farms no different from any other development in most respects
- Standard flora & fauna assessment requirements
- Small, scattered footprint in agricultural landscapes with flexibility to avoid major habitat loss generally low impact
- Total footprint can be large though, especially in sensitive environments

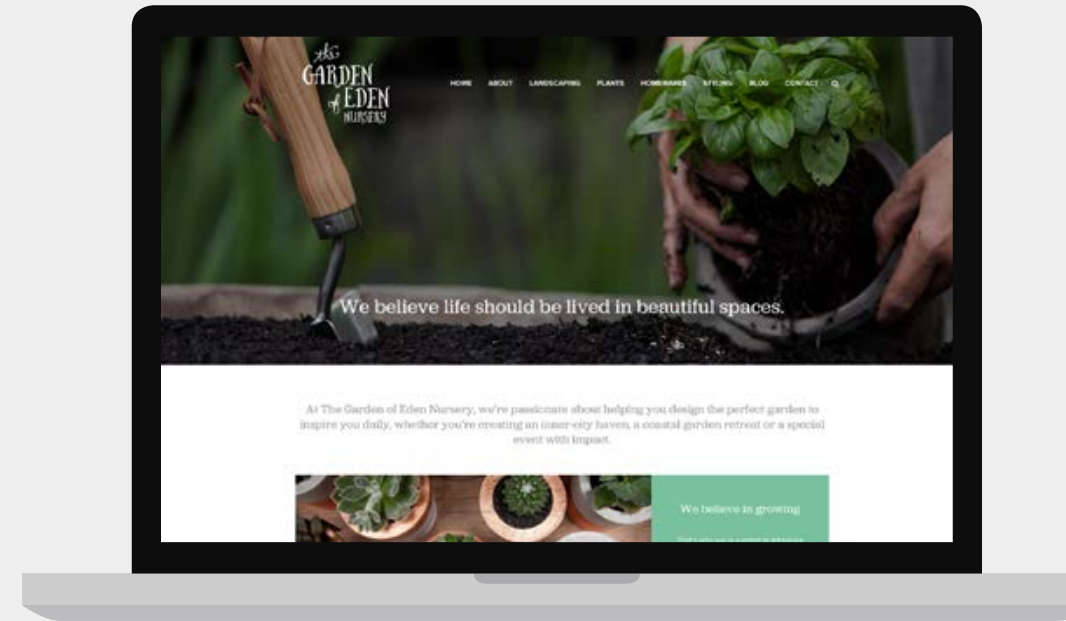

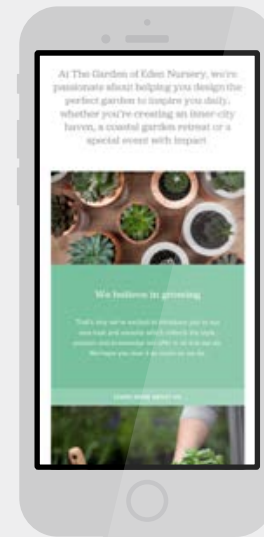

Garden Of Eden Nursery

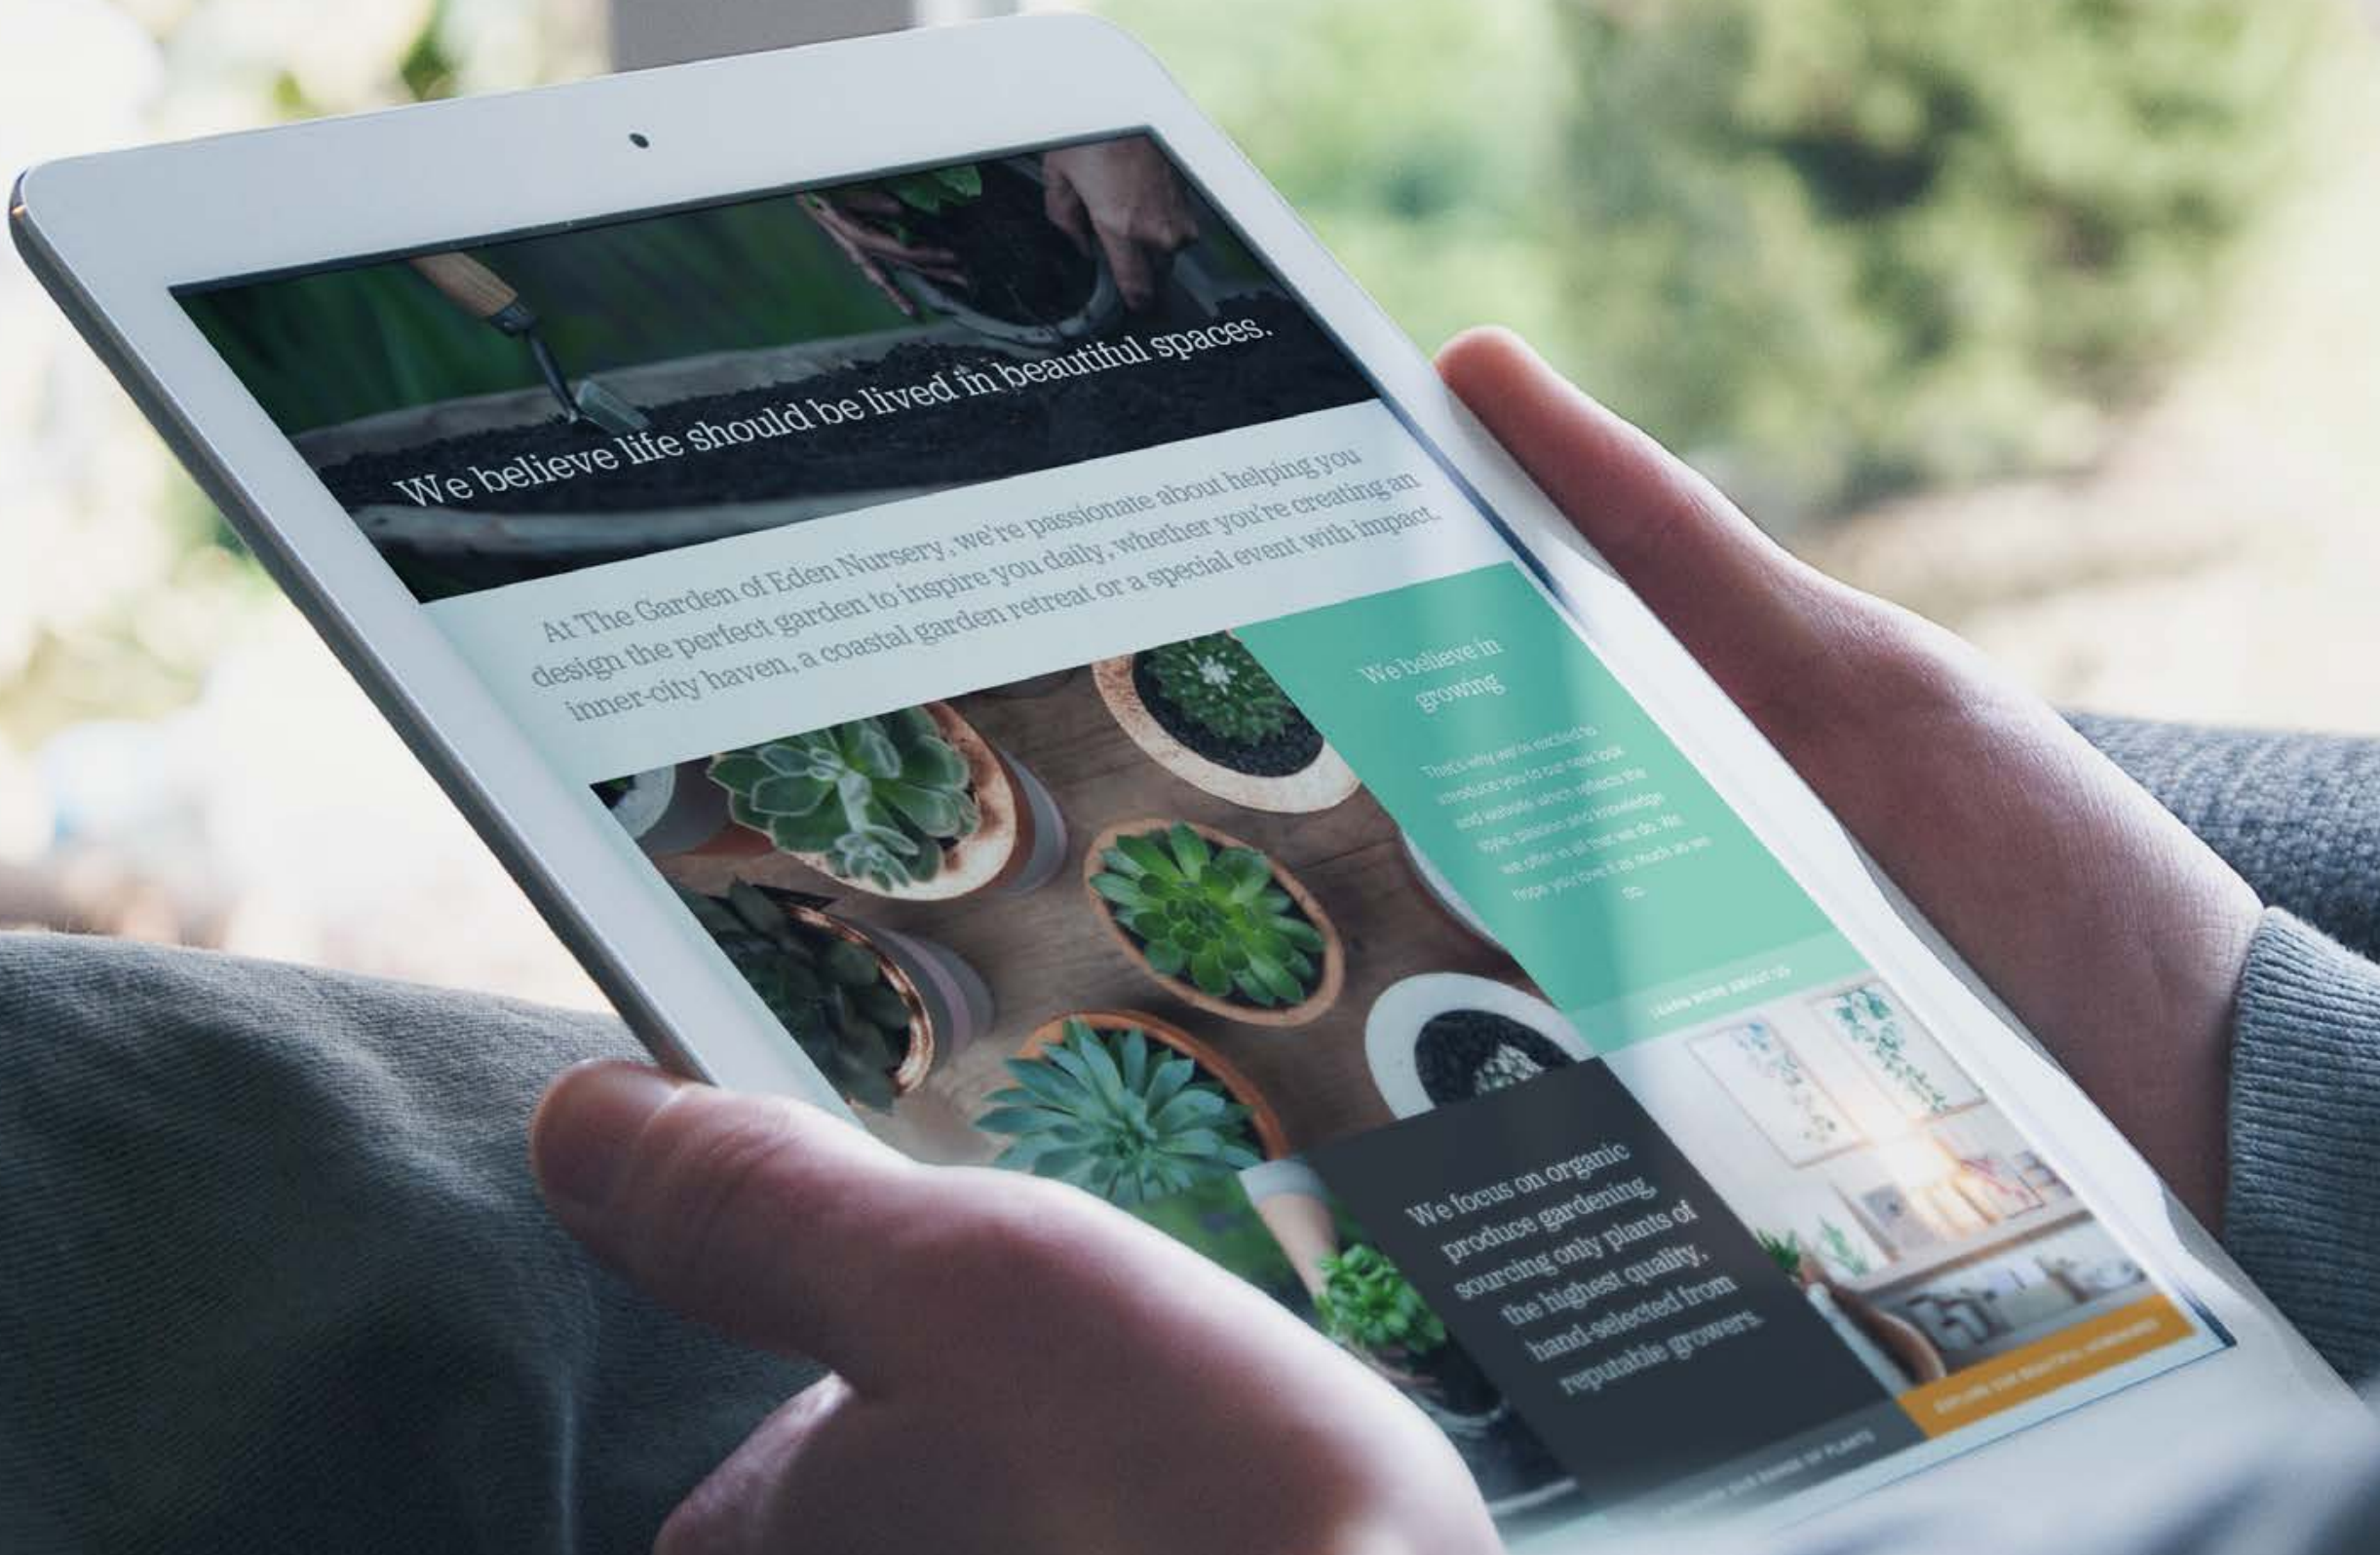

Located in the old Albert Park Railway Station, The Garden of Eden Nursery has been a part of the Albert Park community for over twenty years. They wanted a brand that reflects the nature of their current-day business and a suite of marketing tools that accurately positions their offering in the minds of their diverse target audiences.

the GARDEN of EDEN NURSERY

We believe life should be lived in beautiful spaces.

At The Garden of Eden Nursery, we're passionate about helping you design the perfect garden to inspire you daily, whether you're creating an inner-city haven, a coastal garden retreat or a special event with impact.

We believe in growing

That's why we're excited to introduce you to our new oak leaf website which reflects the style, passion and knowledge we offer in all that we do. We hope you love it as much as we do.

We focus on organic produce gardening, sourcing only plants of the highest quality, hand-selected from reputable growers.

SEEKING TALENTED ECONOMISTS

About Frontier Economics

Frontier Economics is an economics consulting firm. We apply economics to markets, organisations, regulation and policies. Our advice helps clients in sectors and disciplines including water, energy, climate change, telecommunications, transport, competition and corporate finance. Over more than 16 years, we have built a reputation for independence and fierce adherence to economic principles. Our clients include regulators, government departments and the private sector across the Asia-Pacific.

Frontier Economics is a unique place to work, with an inclusive, collegiate culture. Headquartered in Melbourne, we have offices in Sydney, Brisbane and Singapore. We have a sister company that operates from offices across Europe.

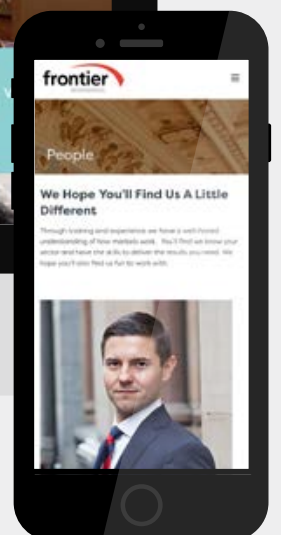

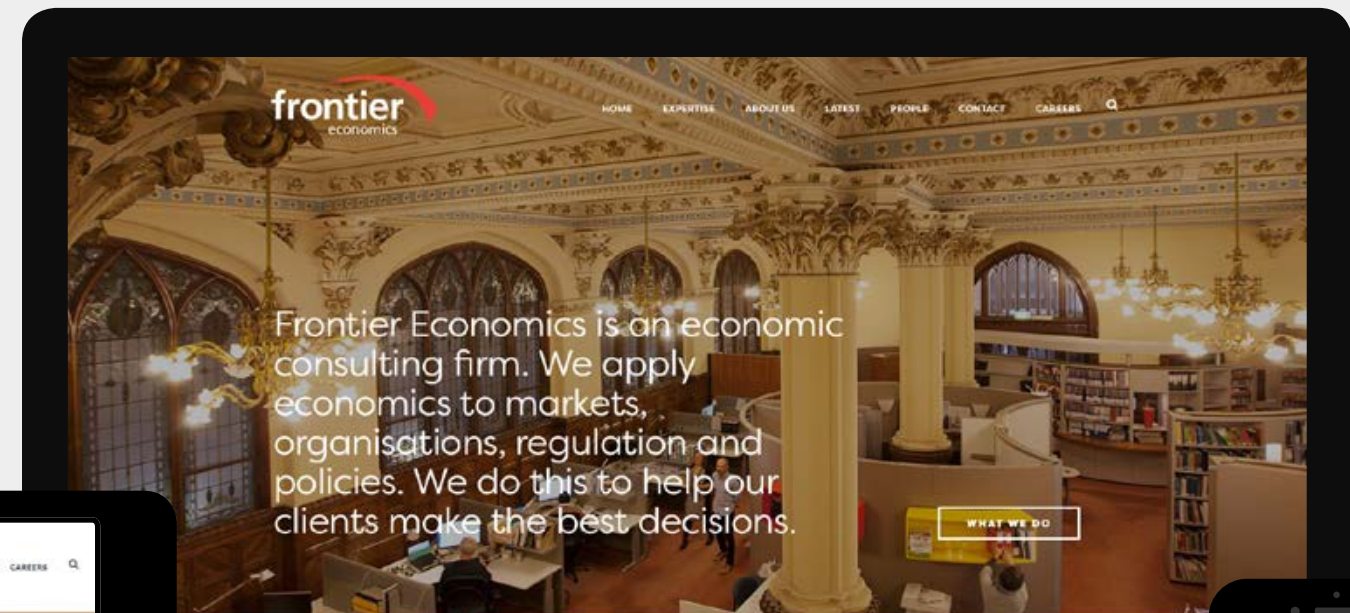

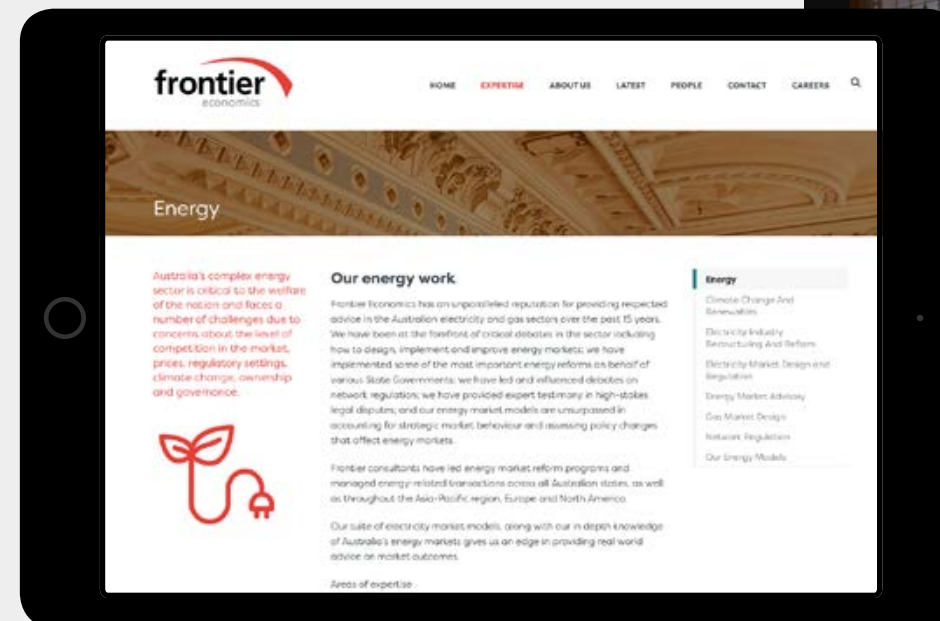

What is economic consulting?

At Frontier Economics, we use microeconomic techniques and empirical models to analyse economic questions about market behavior or to inform business strategies or public policy. Our clients are typically key decision makers in large companies, regulators or government agencies. Our work varies across economic issues and industries. Recent projects include:

- estimation of damages due to fixing prices in the packaging industry
- examining the possible impact on energy prices of a merger of energy businesses
- designing and implementing greenhouse policy
- undertaking a cost/benefit analysis such as valuing the net benefits of a water pipeline or other infrastructure
- advising on the right regulatory framework for new economy industries like ride-sharing.

"I can rely on the quality of work from Frontier and know that it will stand up to scrutiny"

BUSINESS PROCESS OUTSOURCING SOLUTIONS

The Beatt

Recently launched, The Beatt defines an evolved rhythm in health and wellbeing, combining a sleek yet welcoming ambience with a genuinely holistic approach to nutrition, health and wellness.

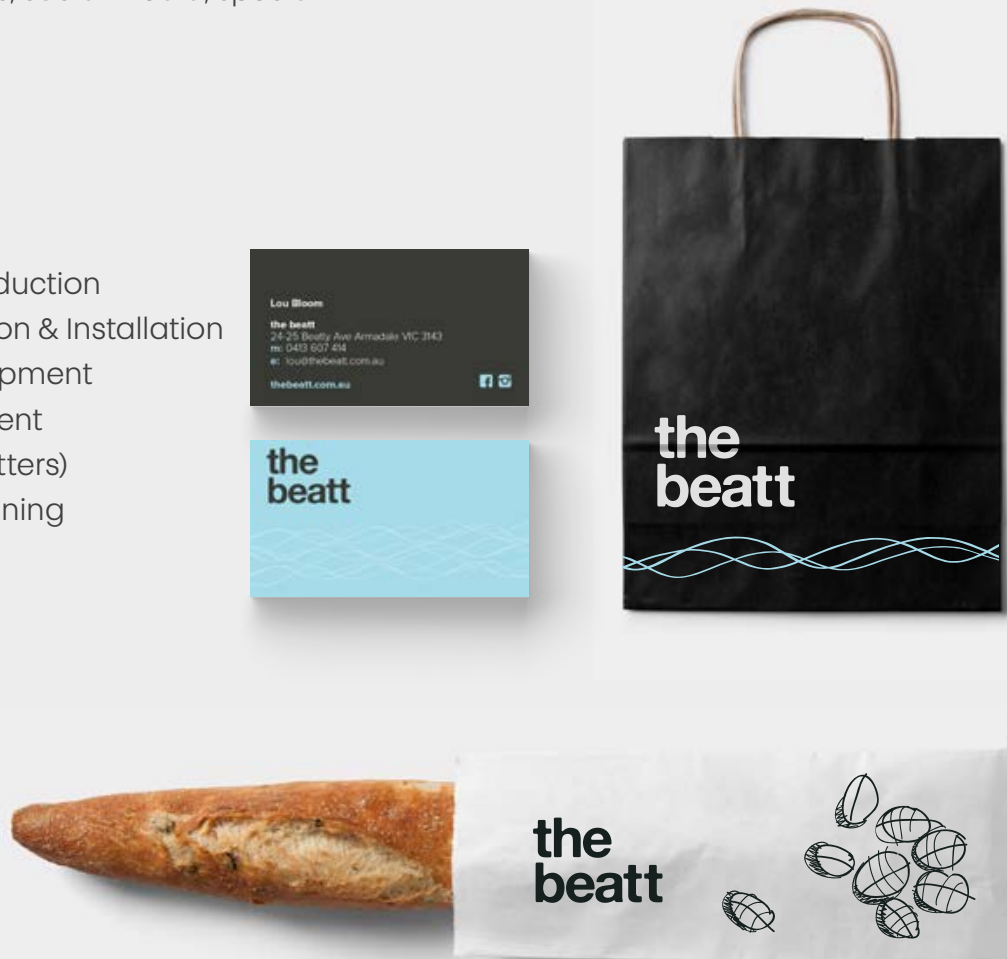

Gosh Creative has worked with the owners and managers to determine key messaging that reflects the brand values, direction and personality of The Beatt - for both their cafe and wellness hub. We subsequently designed the visual identities for both the wellness and cafe brands and developed a suite of brand and marketing solutions to assist with the growth of the business.

We continue to support them with initiatives both offline and online, through their blog, eNewsletters, social media, special events, PR and affiliate relationships.

Denimsmith #NorthSideStory

Denimsmith are a collaboration of skilled makers with over two decades of denim-craft. Very proudly located in Brunswick East, they came to us with a brand vision that encapsulated quality Australian made denim and Melbourne's vibrant northern suburbs. We designed their visual identity and the complete look and feel for their brand in all its expressions from product labelling and press advertisements to website design and outdoor poster campaigns. This vision further evolved to include a video series called 'North Side Story' featuring like-minded local business.

Morrison's of Glenrowan

"I loved how well Renae and Damien understood our brief and how quickly they were able to develop a user friendly website that we could easily update ourselves, along with a suite of associated collateral.

Following this positive experience I briefed in what I thought would be a really difficult piece of work - refreshing the brand for my family's winery business. This included sensitively handling an existing logo and moving away from a long standing and outdated label design.

I told GOSH the story of our family business and they interpreted this beautifully. They were able to deliver a well thought out package including a sharpened up logo, beautiful photography and a stunning website - and mum and dad are absolutely thrilled with their new brand."

Rogue Wave Brewing Co.

A well established, widely acclaimed pub in Airey's Inlet on the Great Ocean Road commenced brewing its own beer in 2015. The product is outstanding and we were lucky enough to be given the opportunity to develop the overall brand for Rogue Wave Brewing Co. as well as the identities for each of their locally brewed beers (after a small tasting of course).

"I approached Gosh creative because we needed a Website/on-line store that would elevate our brand. Gosh Creative helped us by designing a on-trend Website/on-line store which has proven to be a positive shopping experience for our customers.

The result was outstanding and has really showcased our Denim Jeans. One thing I liked was their ability work under strict timelines but always with a positive attitude 'What can I do to help'. I would recommend Gosh Creative to people who need fresh ideas and a modern on-line store."

"Info Partners provides consulting and is building a subscription product client set. We struggled with our existing design agency to take this step or even make our requirements understood.

Since engaging Gosh, we really haven't looked back.

We initially needed help bringing our tech offering to life visually, and Gosh gave the best feedback and concepts during quotation. They then delivered a wonderful suite of visual tools, modifying, adjusting and adding along the way according to our varying requirements. We were very happy with both the result and the understanding they showed for our us and our service. So Gosh were then the natural choice to create our Connectr web page. We had limited content and time but Gosh were able to get us up and running with a professional WP site, which is modifiable by us but still has a professional visual "stamp".

Beyond our promotional and web work, we have also started to use Gosh for our client work, which they handle very well, and within time and budget constraints.

They have been a fantastic find for our endeavours."

"We have really appreciated your patience and commitment to seeing this project through and most importantly we are really impressed with the result.

From the outset we considered Gosh as a good fit for our organisation. We looked for value for money and a small team with considerable experience in the two important aspects of a webpage namely the design and secondly the technology expertise and capacity to deliver. The advantage of the small team meant that we had contact with the people actually doing the job and that questions and feedback were responded to quickly.

Through the process of developing a website Gosh highlighted other possibilities that we hadn't considered. This value adding demonstrated the depth of experience in advertising and marketing at Gosh. As a small not for profit organisation we had few resources to allocate to marketing and advertising and some stakeholders took some convincing that this was a good investment. Gosh was able to articulate and present a logical rationale as to why Sirovilla should invest in this work.

I would have no hesitation in working with Gosh for future work and indeed we plan to work with Gosh again in the near future. I am more than happy to be contacted to provide further information on tim. liston@sirovilla.org.au."
